Introduction

Adarsha Multiple Campus (AMC) was established in 2063 B.S. (2007 A.D.) by a team of professionals, academicians and social workers with an affiliation of Tribhuvan University. It is a community based, service oriented, and non-profit making college. It is located at Gajuri Bazaar of Gajuri Rural Municipality, Ward Number 1, Dhading. In the initial days, this campus ran B. Ed. programme in English, Nepali, Population and Economics Education. As per the local demand, it also obtained affiliation to run bachelor classes in management stream in 2064 B.S. (2007 September). As the scope of education expanded, it has introduced M.Ed. programme with Education, Planning & Management (ED. PM) and Nepali Education after 2075 B. S. (2019 January).

Since last year, we have appointed lecturers who enrolled in Ph.D. programme, three have completed M. Phil. Degree and rest three joined M.Phil. degree. To make our teaching learning research based, we have also established Research Management Cell (RMC) and it is publishing a peer reviewed journal. We have
